Dear Friends of Trinity,

It matters what you believe. You will conduct yourself based on what you believe. Beliefs determine actions.

The women who went to the tomb of Jesus believed that his body would still be there. So they brought spices and ointments to give Jesus a proper burial. They did not believe the tomb would be empty.

Imagine their surprise when they arrived at the tomb! The stone covering the entrance was moved out of the way. When they went inside they did not find what they believed they would find. Instead they saw a man dressed in a white robe announcing that Jesus had risen. Everything happened that was contrary to what they actually believed. Obviously they had to change their beliefs.

It can be a frightening thing to do because the women ran from that tomb "trembling and bewildered". Their world was just turned upside-down. But they became the most faithful followers of the resurrected Jesus. They underwent a change of belief.

On Easter Sunday, I will address the issue of beliefs. We all have them, and they do matter. It especially matters when beliefs pertain to God. It matters if our beliefs are in line with what's taught in the Bible. I will tell you why on Easter Sunday. It will set you free!

There is enough joy with the Easter message for all of us. Let's come together and share that joy. Let's raise up our faith in the God who raises the dead and brings all things to life!

A very Happy and Blessed Easter to you all!

Pastor Hoag

April 2012 Newsletter

Alleluia, Christ Is Risen, He Is Risen Indeed, Alleluia!

While we are technically still in Lent, we are rapidly approaching Easter, and certainly the weather seems to indicate that Spring has arrived (along with flowers, warmth, and... bugs!) There are lots of things happening around our congregation as we get ready to wrap up this "school" year, so here's hoping we captured them all.

Feed My Starving Children

By now, most of you are aware that Trinity is partnering with Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Frankfort on this mission project. There is a poster with a bowl into which donations may be inserted in the same location the very successful Mugs for MorningStar resided. There are also some day-glo orange sign-up sheets where you can sign up for 2 hour shifts for packing meals OR you can visit our web site www.trinitynewlenox.org/missions. You can read more about this at www.fmsc.org, but registration is not open yet on that website. If you have further questions, please see Jeff McDonald.

Please Sign on the hall table to donate breakfast treats, which should be brought to the kitchen Saturday morning or before the early service.

Update on Virgil Switzer: As it stands right now there is a plea deal on the table that Virgil will be sentenced to 6 years in prison with credit for time served. If Virgil accepts the deal he will serve that sentence. If he turns down the deal his case will go to trial. Virgil is at a crossroads right now that will determine his future. Please keep him in your prayers, asking that the Lord will watch over and protect him and that God's wisdom will prevail. We will keep up the effort of communicating with him through cards and letters. Communication from the congregation means so very much to him. Please continue to send him cards and letters. Address labels are on the table, along with the card to be signed. Virgil's next court date is in April.

St. Matthew's: Thanks to Bob Romadka & Ed Tatro for delivering rummage, food, and money to St. Matthew's in mid-March. They happily reported that the LCMS Mission Board has been assisting the church with Chicago-mandated renovations and repairs. Thanks to all Trinity members who donate to this important, charitable mission.

Another new page, which is being fed piece-meal in the bulletins, concerns the meaning of each of the windows. You can look at each window and get the story by going to this page: Trinity Windows page at http://www.trinitynewlenox.org/trinity-windows.html

Can you tell that we really LIKE our new website?????

As many of you know, the church was vandalized with graffiti. We were alerted to the fact by our neighbors to the east. While we were meeting with Serv-Pro, a gentleman came up in need of community service hours. His specialty was stone cleaning. Take a look at the full version of the newsletter on the website for what he has accomplished so far! When you drive past at night, the results are breathtaking. Combined with our windows facelift, oh my...
