

November 2011

Dear Friends of Trinity,

In all things, give thanks!

It might not appear as true, but it really is true that we can give thanks for everything in our lives. You might not be able to understand the reasons for the many things that happen in life, but it might be easier to seek opportunities instead. Everything (meaning everything) that happens has hidden opportunities embedded within. So you can give thanks, not only for your joys and blessings, but also for your sorrows and struggles.

In this season of Thanksgiving, and as the Day approaches, we do give pause as a nation to express our gratitude to God for the many freedoms and the abundance He has given us. But do we also bring to mind the many challenges and adversities we've experienced? They are also a part of our lives for which we can be thankful. In all things, give thanks!

It's difficult to think about it, but perhaps some of the edge can be taken off when we realize that our God is at His best when we are at our worst. St. Paul never hid his weaknesses. In fact, he elevated them as a demonstration of God's power. When he was weak, then he was strong. Where did he get that idea?

Well, he got it from none other than Jesus. When was Jesus the strongest he had ever been in his life? Wasn't it when he was on the cross? Wasn't it when he was at his weakest? Wasn't it when he was most vulnerable? You may not be able to fathom it, but it is the clear witness of Scripture! As it was for Jesus, so it is for us. When have we been the strongest we've ever been? Isn't it when we've been the weakest? Think about it!

Weakness is strength because it is always vindicated. The cross is vindicated in the resurrection. St. Paul's difficulties were vindicated in the spread of the Word of God to the ends of the earth. Because of that he proclaimed, "Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise...giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ."—Ephesians 5:15, 20

I join all of you in giving thanks to God for everything, and I wish all of you a very Happy and Pleasant Thanksgiving celebration!

In Christ,

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our Sunday School revision is going strong. Hopefully you will have noticed that the bulletins now will contain a short synopsis of the lesson so you can reinforce that during the week. For those without a child in Sunday School, if you have a chance to ask a little one about their lesson, please take the opportunity to reinforce the learning as well. That's WHY it is in the bulletin!

Our Christmas Program has arrived, and work will begin shortly. Stay tuned for information regarding this favorite time when the children share with us their wonderful telling of the Christmas story.

SALAD LUNCHEON

The Chancel Guild Salad Luncheon was held on October 5th.

The women of Chancel Guild would like to thank the congregation, family and friends that took part in this year's Salad Luncheon. It was a success and approximately $740 was raised to the glory of God. Thank you also to the ladies of Women's League for their generous donations of dessert items. It was quite a sweet table! Thanks again to the ladies of Chancel who contribute their delicious salads and valuable time to make this event a success every year!" WOMEN'S LEAGUE

No November meeting. This is to give you cookie bakers extra time in the kitchen. The phone calls are already starting to come into the church office making sure that this event is still on!

More information will be forthcoming regarding our Christmas Luncheon on Tuesday, December 13th, but we wanted you to reserve the date now!

Our Cookie Walk is a huge success because of everyone who bakes for us. Some members of Women's League are unable to bake this year and so they have donated baking supplies for anyone who would like to bake or to bake extra. Many of you bake already, and we really appreciate it. Our Cookie Walk is out only fundraiser and the monies are used for church projects and missions.

There is a labeled box of dry ingredients in the gym and butter and eggs in the refrigerator. Please help yourself. There are some cookie recipes, but you may use your own if desired. Thank you to both donors and bakers!

ANNUAL COOKIE WALK, sponsored by Women's League is being held on Saturday Dec. 3rd from 8:30- noon. We welcome any donations of Christmas cookies, homemade candy and other bakery goods from members of our congregation. Trays will be available beginning 11/20. Bakery goods can be dropped off Friday, December 2nd from 8:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. or Saturday a.m.

Thrivent Financial for Lutherans - Chapter News

Away in the Basement - Thrivent is offering a discount on tickets to this latest play from the Church Basement Women at the Rialto on December 1. See the enclosed poster.

STAINED GLASS REPAIRS COMING SOON.

Church Council approved repairs to the large stained glass window in the choir loft. It will soon be visible from Cedar Road. So, as you drive by on your travels, keep an eye out for the Gentle Shepherd.

TPCG

The next meeting of the Trinity (Portable) Crafting Group will be Friday 11/11 from 5-11 pm in the gym. While the group began life as a papercrafting group, we welcome anyone with a portable craft. If you can carry it; bring it! Especially at this gathering, we are asking for all of you who have Cricuts to bring them and any CHRISTMAS cartridges. Yup, another service project. As usual, the cost is $2 and a snack to share. Those without Cricuts – any donation of things for Christmas cardmaking would be welcome.

Craft/Vendor Fair

As the newsletter goes to press, the craft/vendor fair is still a few days away, BUT the numbers have been overwhelming. We have had to turn away participants and limit it to 40!!! We are using both the gym AND the Fellowship Hall area downstairs. Thank you, thank you, thank you to one and all who have helped make this such a huge success for the youth. Perhaps we will be able to put up the amount raised on the website or in future bulletins.

Youth Lock-In

Details are scarce, but for now, keep the day after Thanksgiving available for a lock-in here at church. Details will be in the bulletins and Pastor will probably post on Facebook and/or Twitter.

Daniel and Susan Willenborg will be embarking on a trip to Mexico to work and assist at an orphanage missionary. Borrowing straight from our own Lutheran Service Hymnal on pg 305, may we offer:

“Almighty God, You have called Your Church to witness that in Christ You have reconciled us to Yourself. Grant that by Your Holy Spirit we may proclaim the good news of Your salvation so that all who hear it may receive the gift of salvation; through Jesus Christ our Lord.” May God watch over and protect Daniel and Susan while they are gone from us.

Envelopes

Members who have not received offering envelopes in the past and would like to request them for the year 2012, please, fill out a request with your name, address, and telephone number and give it to Kim, Church Secretary, or place in Janice Prospero's church mailbox. Request sheets are on the table in the hallway. You may also contact Janice at 815 485-3558.

Financial Secretary' and Treasurer' 3rd Quarter Report :

Financial Secretary's & Treasurer's 3rd Quarter Report: The congregation adopted a 2011 General Fund Budget of $198,127 at its Annual Meeting on January 30. The Budget is 2.5% higher than contributions made to the General Fund in 2010. The Council deemed the increase warranted to cover higher operating costs, i.e., benefits, building maintenance, insurance and other necessities. A modest salary increase of 2% was granted to Pastor – after no increase last year. Primary support of the General Fund by the congregation is very important to meeting Trinity's ongoing needs.

During the quarter, all due bills were paid. Contributions budgeted for Missions and LCCF, through September, were remitted to Synod. General Fund receipts were slightly below those in 2010, however, normal operating expenses have been running below budget. The balance on the original $100,000 mortgage, used to finance the new restrooms, was $35,590.37 at September 30. We want to thank everyone for their support of Trinity Lutheran Church and its missions. If you have any questions, please contact Jan Prospero, Financial Secretary, or Bruce Hasch, Treasurer.
