

October 2011

Dear Friends of Trinity,

How do you know when you've forgiven someone? Do you know what forgiveness really is?

Forgiveness is not excusing, approving, or allowing the bad things other people do to you. These are trivial cultural expressions of forgiveness that are actually parodies of the real thing. They simply won't do.

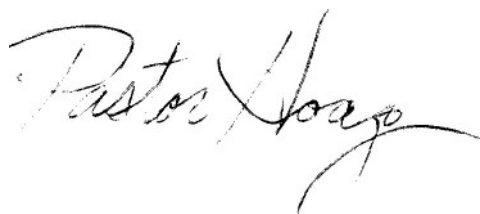

Real forgiveness demands more from you. Contrary to popular opinion, forgiveness is definitely not designed to benefit the forgiver, but the forgiven. It's costly because it's sacrificial and, dare I say, humiliating. It takes a humble stance to practice real forgiveness.

In the Scriptures, forgiveness is spoken of in terms of "cancelling a debt". It means to release the offender from any and all obligations toward the offended. When you tell someone you forgive them, you are saying that they don't owe you anything. That is, if you are really and truly forgiving that person. The debt can come in different forms: monetary, physical, emotional, spiritual, or mental. While still acknowledging the pain that was inflicted on you, you choose not to retaliate in kind because you have cancelled the debt owed to you.

We were indebted to God because of our sinful and rebellious ways against Him. We owed Him our very lives. In love for us, God paid our debt Himself by the death of Jesus on the cross. That is good news! This serves as the template for forgiveness as it is played out in our lives. We cancel the debt of others by assuming the debt ourselves! We do this simply because we have been forgiven by God beyond measure and imagination. Forgiving others is the appropriate response to the forgiveness we receive through Jesus Christ.

We receive the gift of forgiveness won for us by Christ's death and resurrection through Word and Sacrament. Come often to receive these wondrous blessings God gives to us freely.

In Christ,

The actual readings are in this newsletter or you can contact Pastor or Kim at (815) 485-6973.

Blood Drive

Thanks to all who came out for the blood drive. We had 23 people come out with 21 donations, which resulted in the saving of 63 lives! That's more than are in attendance at some services! IF we keep up with that great level of participation, we will be able to get the big coach and the incentives will continue with each drive. Well done, good and faithful servants!

CHOIR TIME!!!

It's that time again! Time to raise our voices in praise and song to our Heavenly King. Won't you come out and join the choir and make some new friends? This year you can consult the schedule (posted in the bulletin and on the calendar) and just join us for rehearsals for the dates you know you can sing!

With last years' being such a success, we are again planning a hay ride at Konow's Farm on Cedar Road in Lockport.

The cost will be $7 a person or $35 a family (2 adults and children). The date this year is Sunday, October 9 at 1 o'clock.

There is a sign up sheet on the table and an envelope on the table as well to put your checks in.

Please come and join us for an afternoon of fun.

We will take a hayride as a group and enjoy a weenie roast when the ride is complete. Mark your calendars and come and join us for an afternoon of fun and fellowship.

BONHOEFFER'S COST: What is a moral person to do in a time of savage immorality? That question tormented Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a German clergyman of great distinction who actively opposed Hitler and the Nazis, His convictions cost him his life. Bonhoeffer, a highly regarded Lutheran minister who could have kept his peace and saved his life on several occasions, instead paid the ultimate price for his beliefs. This is a play not suitable for those under 12. We are going to try and get a group together to go see this at Provision Theater in Chicago on 10/23 at 3pm. Tickets are $27 each. In order to get seating together, please get cash to Daniel or Susan by 10/2. Parking is free and there are plenty of opportunities for dining in the area either before or after the play. For more information, please contact Daniel or Susan Willenborg at 815 462 3592 or danielandsusan@clear.net.

VIRGIL SWITZER: WE RECEIVED A LETTER!!!!!!!!!! The letter is hanging on the bulletin board outside the church office. The envelope is there too – take a look at the beautiful artwork as well!

Please print all greetings, as Virgil can't read cursive. (He does receive the bulletin, newsletter, and portals of prayer, so you don't need to send those). His address is:
